GIS SOCIABILITÉS RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP 2026

To promote research related to sociability studies in the long eighteenth century, the GIS Sociabilités is offering a Master's Degree Research Fellowship that will enable a Master's Degree student from any GIS partner institution to visit a library, a museum, an academic institution, etc., to carry out his/her research work abroad*. The applications will be examined by a jury composed of the GIS Director, the President of the GIS Board and the Chair of the GIS Scientific Council.*

A CV and a completed and signed application form should be sent before 30 November 2026 to the following address: gis.sociabilites@gmail.com

RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP APPLICATION

---

1. APPLICANT (student):
   a. NAME (Last, First):

   b. INSTITUTION, DEPARTMENT & RESEARCH LABORATORY:

   c. NAME OF DEGREE:

   d. COMPLETE POSTAL ADDRESS:

   e. TELEPHONE:

   f. E-MAIL ADDRESS:

2. RESEARCH SUPERVISOR:
   NAME:

   FIELD OF RESEARCH:

   RESEARCH UNIT:

3. TITLE OF RESEARCH PROJECT:

4. SUMMARY OF RESEARCH PROJECT (500 words)

State the objectives, hypothesis, sources, methodology, and specific aims of the proposed research. Describe what institution(s) you plan to visit and what sources you will examine.

5. DETAILED BUDGET:

DURATION AND PLACE OF RESEARCH PERIOD: (Number of days / planned dates / institution(s) visited)
DETAILED COSTS: (Transport; accommodation; daily expenditures)
TOTAL COSTS (that should not exceed 1,000 €):

Date:

Signature of applicant

_____ _____

Signature of supervisor